- The Domain Name System (DNS) is:
  - Hierarchically distributed naming system for computers, services, or any resource connected to the Internet or a Private Network.
  - It Associates various information with Domain Names assigned to each of the participating entities

- It translates easily Memorized Domain Names:
  - To the numerical IP Addresses needed for the purpose of locating computer services and devices worldwide. By providing a worldwide, distributed Keyword-based redirection service, the Domain Name System is an essential component of the functionality of the Internet

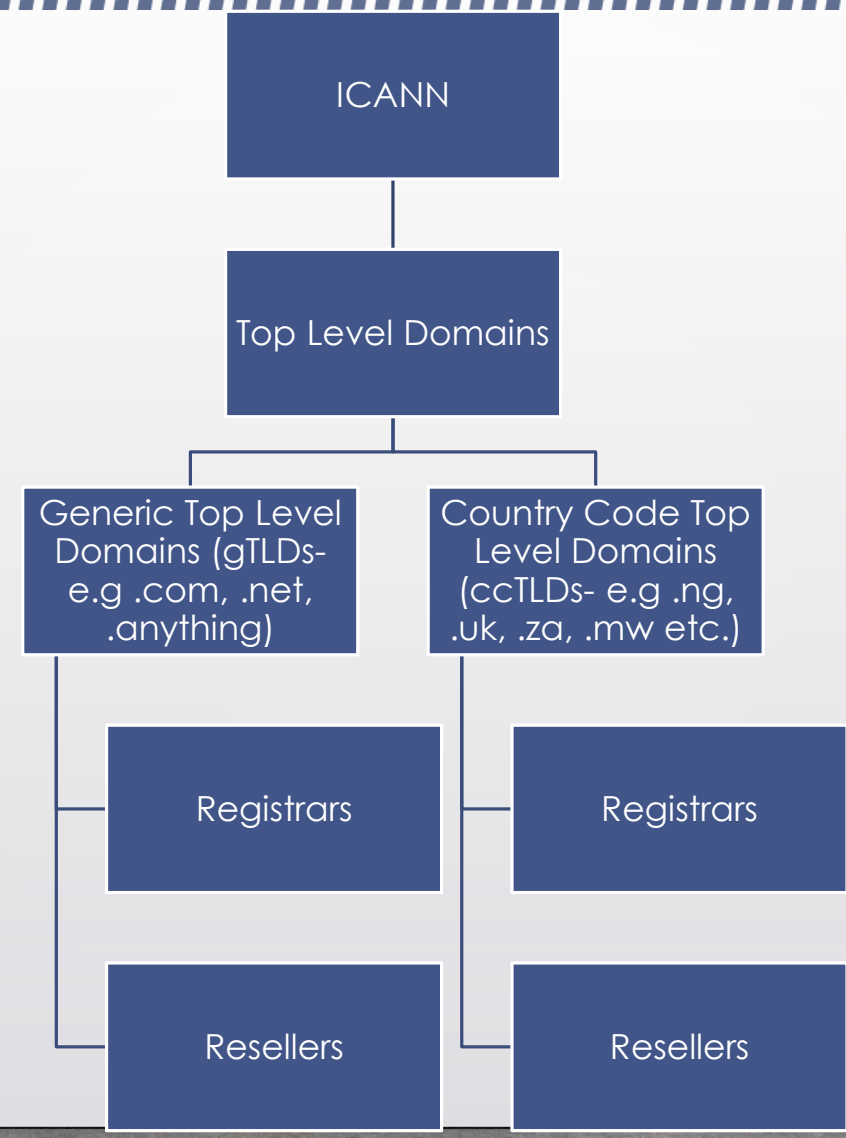

- Domain Name System serves as-
  - The Phone Book for the Internet by translating Human-Friendly Computer Hostnames into IP addresses.
  - For example, the domain name www.example.com translates to the addresses 93.184.216.119 (IPv4) and 2606:2800:220:6d:26bf:1447:1097:aa7 (IPv6).

- A Domain is
  - Virtual Real Estate.
